From the historic vineyards of Haardt, Müller Catoir crafts this elegant Riesling from the prized Bürgergarten "Erste Lage". Sunlit slopes and cool Palatine breezes shape its pure citrus and mineral precision. A wine of quite power-refined, poised, unmistakably Pfalz.

Sourced from ungrafted Nerello Mascalese vines at 980 metres on Etna's north-facing Contrada, where thin volcanic sand and extreme diurnal shifts shape precision. A wine defined by altitude-driven tension, low yields, slow ripening and mineral-rich basalt translating into finesse.

2011 | Château La Tour Blanche, Sauternes, 1er Grand Cru Classé | Bordeaux, France

One of my longtime favorite Châteaux in Sauternes. The Château, and its vineyards, was gifted by his previous owner to the French government in 1909 with one condition: they had to create a winemaking school within its walls. 2011 was a brilliant vintage for La Tour Blanche and the wine shows hint of confit pineapple and vanilla.
